

International

Eaton & Van Winkle represents corporate and individual clients in an array of international matters, including lending transactions, domestic investments by foreign corporations and individuals, licensing and distributorship agreements, maritime matters and bankruptcy matters in the U.S. and abroad.

Our representation of clients active in over 50 countries enables us to develop and work with an international network of law firms experienced in commercial, financial and securities law matters. Such contacts allow the firm to provide knowledgeable professional assistance to clients in all parts of the world.

The firm includes attorneys and staff who are proficient in French, German, and Spanish.