

Taxation

The firm provides tax advice and representation for corporations, partnerships, limited liability companies, individuals, and trusts and estates on Federal, State and local tax matters with particular emphasis on structuring complex corporate transactions, including tax aspects of mergers and acquisitions, leveraged buyouts and other financing arrangements involving traditional and hybrid securities.

The firm also has extensive experience in formulating strategies for bankruptcies, workouts, foreign investments, corporations, partnerships, limited liability companies, tax exempt organizations, executive compensation, employee benefits and real estate.